[Editor Name and Address]

Dear Editor of [journal],

I am submitting a manuscript for consideration of publication in [journal title]. The manuscript is entitled “[title of manuscript]”.

I confirm that this work is original and has not been published elsewhere, nor is it currently under consideration for publication elsewhere.

[Two or three sentences describing main findings of the research, explain in your own words the significance and novelty of the work, the problem that is being addressed, and why the manuscript belongs in this journal].

I have no conflicts of interest to disclose. Please address all correspondence concerning this manuscript to me at [email address].

Thank you for your consideration of this manuscript.

Yours Sincerely,

[Your full name]
